NEWS RELEASE

11th July 2007

LIFE SENTENCES FOR 21/7 TERRORISTS

The Attorney General, Baroness Scotland said, "I would like to pay tribute to the hard work of everyone involved in bringing this case to court, and to this successful outcome. I believe much of this is down to the hard work, effectiveness and thoroughness of the prosecution team and the police. This co-operation both national, and international has meant that these four men - whose clear intention it was to kill, maim and cause destruction – have been found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment."
